Chee Eng is an Associate in the Firm.

Chee Eng started practice as a corporate lawyer in a boutique law firm that practises corporate law exclusively. Chee Eng has advised SGX-listed companies on various corporate transactions, such as acquisitions and disposals amounting to major transactions under Chapter 10 of the SGX Listing Rules. Chee Eng is experienced in advising on investment funds, having set up numerous investment funds in Singapore, primarily using the variable capital company structure, and has also provided legal advice on investments in foreign funds set up in the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands.

Being fluent in Chinese, Chee Eng has also advised numerous Chinese clients on investments, joint ventures and acquisition of assets in Singapore.

On the dispute resolution front, as an SMC Accredited Mediator, Chee Eng takes an interest-based, collaborative approach in resolving conflicts. Chee Eng is familiar with various aspects of litigation, especially on consumer protection and criminal defence, and he makes time to take on pro bono matters as his way of giving back.

Prior to being called to the Bar, Chee Eng has had more than 10 years of experience working in both the public and private sectors, including in the legal department of a top US consulting firm.

Chee Eng's wealth of experience gives him an edge in dispute resolution, and his experience as a corporate lawyer complements the work of our team.
