Allan heads the Firm's corporate practice. He has over 3 decades of experience in securities law, transactional and compliance work.

Allan advises companies at every stage, from angel investment and commercial agreements to IPOs, post-listing transactions, and acquisitions. He started practice as a commercial and banking litigation lawyer in 1994 at one of Singapore's premier firms. In 1999, he joined one of Singapore's larger public companies as in-house counsel. He returned to private practice in 2001, and focused his practice on securities laws, corporate and commercial transactional and compliance work.

Allan has wide-ranging experience, having advised companies in all stages of their development, from receiving angel investment, drafting and structuring their commercial and business agreements, advising on their IPOs to their post-listing corporate actions, such as secondary fund-raising, acquisitions and disposals. He also regularly advises listed companies on their regulatory compliance and assists them in structuring their transactions to ensure compliance.

Allan is currently an independent director of VibroPower Corporation Limited (a specialist provider of generators, listed on the Mainboard of the SGX-ST) and the lead independent director of ecoWise Holdings limited (a renewable energy production, resource recovery and integrated environmental management solutions company listed on the Catalist Board of the SGX-ST) and UpHealth Group Limited (f.k.a Don Agro International Limited, an operator and provider of oncological treatment, therapeutics and palliative care through its network of advanced oncology clinics listed on the Catalist Board of the SGX-ST).
