

Diana Chin

Counsel, Head of Family Law

Commissioner for Oaths
Notary Public

E diana.chin@nineyardschambers.com

T 6233 3736

Areas of Practice

- Matrimonial Law
- Last Will and Testament
- Lasting Powers of Attorney
- Probate & Letter of Administration Proceedings

Diana is a seasoned Family Law practitioner with over 2 decades of experience.

Known for her holistic approach to Family Law, Diana works closely with her clients to achieve outcomes that are sustainable as co-parents and in their best interests. Understanding the emotional challenges that often accompany contentious divorces and family disputes, her extensive experience allows her to provide clear foresight and strategic advice to minimize unnecessary conflict where possible. Diana's experience in handling high conflict personalities contributed to her interest in the study of personality types and disorders.

Over the years, Diana has handled numerous contested and uncontested divorces and has assisted hundreds of clients in drafting their Last Will and Testament and Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA), ensuring their wishes are clearly and legally documented. With her experience in estate matters, she regularly provides foresight and suggestions in ensuring the clients' wishes are well documented. She has also assisted clients in drafting Trust Deeds and has valuable experience from her previous work in a local bank and a Trust Company.

Diana's reputation as a trusted legal advisor extends beyond the courtroom, frequently being invited to speak at events hosted by banks and insurance companies, where she provides valuable insights on Wills and Lasting Powers of Attorney to their customers.

Diana is also a Commissioner for Oaths and a Notary Public.

Appointments & Memberships

Singapore Academy of Law

Member

Law Society of Singapore

Member