

Wee Guang Hui
Associate

E guanghui.wee@nineyardschambers.com

T 6233 3736

Areas of Practice

- Civil Litigation
- Criminal Defence
- Debt-Recovery
- Probate & Administration
- Mediation

Guang Hui is an Associate of the firm.

He is admitted as an Advocate & Solicitor of the Supreme Court of Singapore and is also admitted as a solicitor of England & Wales (non-practising). He graduated from the University of Nottingham, where he was recognised on the Dean's List for academic excellence in law.

His practice focuses primarily on litigation and dispute resolution. He has been involved in a range of disputes including commercial and shareholder disputes, complex disputes with cross-border elements, debt recovery, mediations and committal proceedings, as well as probate and estate administration matters. He also undertakes corporate advisory work, including agreement drafting.

Prior to commencing legal practice in Singapore, he gained experience in the United Kingdom as a court-based paralegal with the Crown Prosecution Service, supporting criminal prosecutions before the Crown Court, including trial preparation and proceedings.

He is proficient in Mandarin and has experience assisting Mandarin-speaking clients.

Appointments and Memberships

Singapore Academy of Law

Member

Law Society of Singapore

Member